Ray Witness Called＇Too Drunk  §゙くいーM椺／CR4／74

MEMPHIS（AP）－Fif－ teen minutes before Dr． Martin Luther King Jr．was assassinated，the only wit－ ness to place James Earl Ray near the slaying was so drunk he couldn＇t stand up， a cab driver haș testified．

James McGraw，the cab driver，gave the testimony yesterday on the second day of a federal court hear－ ing on Ray＇s efforts to with－ draw his guilty plea to the King slaying and gain a new trial for murder．
McGraw said he was call－ ed．to a rooming house across the street from the motel where King was shot April 4，1968，to pick up Charles Quitman Stephens and found Stephens drunk in an upstairs room．
＂HE WAS laying on the bed and couldn＇t get up，＂ McGraw said．

Stephens told officers he saw Ray running from an upstairs bathroom in the rooming house，from where öfficers theorize King was shot．
Earlier yesterday，Ray was quoted by the doctor who treated him during his stay in the Shelby County jail as saying he wasn＇t alone in the King death．

Dr．McCarthy DeMere said he asked Ray if he were involved in the slaying as Ray prepared to leave Memphis in March 1969 to begin serving a 99 －year sen－ tence in the state peniten－ tiary in Nashville．
＂Well，let＇s put it this way， －I wasn＇t by myself，＂

DeMere said Ray replied．fender＇s office，Hugh Stan－ BECAUSE of the guilty ton Jr．，testified yester－ plea，there never was any day he had concluded，＂We testimony on Ray＇s guilt or didn＇t have much defense．＂ innocence．But a former But Stanton said he was assistant in the public de－rpreparing a defense for Ray

to Stand Up＇

until he pleaded guilty．＂I was amazed and astound－ ed＂at the plea，Stanton＇ said．

Despite his surprise，how－ ever，Stanton said he con－ sidered as reasonable the recommendation that Ray plead guilty．＂I think it was， an extremely high probabil－ ity that the jury probably would have given him the death penalty．＂
Stanton，whose father was public defender after Ray＇s 1968 arrest in Lon－ don，now is district attor－ ney．He and DeMere testi－ fied before Judge Robert ${ }^{\text {M．}}$ McRae Jr．of U．S．District Court． Explaining why he thought Rav＇s defense was weak，Stanton cited Ray＇s fingerprints on the murder weapon，Ray＇s presence in Memphis at the time and the discovery of his over－ night bag at the scene of the shooting．

RAY CLAIMS his private attorney，Percy Foreman of Houston，Tex．，coerced him to enter the plea and that none of his former attor－ neys developed a support－ able defense for him．

Stanton said that several documents collected by de－ fense investigators could have been used in support of Ray＇s innocence，includ－ ing statements by witnesses disputing the site from which the fatal shot came．
